

How many molecules are estimated to exist in the chemical space?

What is the most widely format to represent chemical structures in chemoinformatics

What can be an issue when working with AI models of a very specific chemical space?

What are important information we might want to gather from an experiment to use its data for ML?

Waiting for responses ...

What information we can obtain from a molecule?

Waiting for responses ...

